19.11.2020 17:56:34 CET | Ice Group ASA | Additional regulated information required to be disclosed under the laws of a member state

Henning Karlsrud has resigned as CFO in Ice Group ASA, and has accepted a position outside Ice Group, with effect from 1 March 2021. Karlsrud will continue in his current role during his notice period, or until a successor is in place. If necessary, he will also support Ice Group on an ad-hoc basis after this date.

“I would like to thank Henning for his contributions the last three years, both with regards to the demerger of the company, the listing on Oslo Axess and the debt and equity issues. We will immediately start the process to recruit a new CFO, and I wish Henning all the best for the future,” say Eivind Helgaker, CEO of Ice Group.

“Over the last three years we have simplified the company structure and strategy, grown the market share to 11% and taken the company to EBITDA break-even. The decision has not been easy, but I am certain that Ice will continue to succeed and grow both revenues and earnings in the coming years,” says Henning Karlsrud.
